Please direct questions to: Ann Mendenhall, am-pm@shaw.ca.

Eligibility requirements:

1. Applicants must be students age 29 or under, Canadian citizens/residents with a permanent address in the Cowichan Valley, who are a) currently pursuing, or b) 2014 graduates who expect to pursue post-secondary studies in one of the following areas, all of which were close to David Walden's heart: piano performance, piano accompaniment, organ, classical voice, musical theatre, composition/improvisation, classical guitar, and all orchestral instruments.
2. The applicant must be: a) a Grade 12 student of, or b) a post-secondary student nominated by, a current CVMTA member. (CVMTA Membership is open to all Cowichan Valley music teachers; yearly dues are $65. Please email Ann Mendenhall at am-pm@shaw.ca for more information.)
3. The competition for the 2014 Scholarship will be held the evening of May 30, 2014 at St. Peter Quamichan church hall. For all categories except composition/improvisation, two contrasting pieces/songs should be performed; total audition time should not exceed 15 minutes. Accompanists must provide their own soloist(s). Composition students must submit original score(s) and recording(s) along with their application; they are also expected to attend the audition and may be asked to improvise.
4. Applicants may compete in more than one category.
5. Applicants will be notified no later than May 30, 2014.
6. Applicants must submit this completed form, along with supporting documents, and the $20 application fee ($15 for each additional category),* on or before April 5, 2014, to: Ann Mendenhall, CVMTA President, 3790 Glenora Road, Duncan, BC, V9L 6S5

* Note: No applicant will be barred from auditioning if the fee causes financial hardship. Please inquire.
